

Bilt Close Friends Terms and Conditions

These Bilt Close Friends Terms and Conditions supplement the Bilt Rewards Terms & Conditions. Bilt Close Friends is an exclusive community created by Bilt Technologies, Inc. ("Bilt") that gives members behind-the-scenes access, early perks, and a direct line to share feedback on Bilt's products and experiences. By applying to join, you acknowledge and agree to these terms.

By joining Bilt Close Friends, you agree that Bilt may interact with you on social media in connection with the program, including tagging you in posts, sending you messages, or resharing your public content related to Bilt, Bilt events, or Bilt neighborhood partners. These interactions and use of your publicly shared content do not entitle you to compensation.

As a Bilt Close Friend, you may get early or exclusive access to unreleased products, new features, or behind-the-scenes content. All experiences, offers, and any credits provided through the program are subject to availability and may be limited in quantity or duration. These experiences are shared with you as-is and may be changed, paused, or removed at any time, without notice or warranty. If you choose to share feedback, ideas, or suggestions, you grant Bilt a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, and irrevocable license to use that input for any purpose, without compensation.

Membership in Bilt Close Friends is limited and subject to approval. If accepted, your membership will remain active until you or Bilt decide to end it. Bilt may approve or deny applications, suspend or revoke membership, and modify or discontinue the program at any time, in whole or in part, in Bilt's sole discretion and with or without notice. If you attend a Bilt Close Friends event, you agree to do so responsibly and at your own risk and agree that Bilt is not responsible for any injuries, accidents, or damages related to your participation.
